

~Tails & Trails~

MAY 2011

From the President's Saddlebag

Hi All,

April came in like a lion and is still eating the south eastern part of the US and is keeping the west side of the country under water and or snow. I have been on a horse twice this month but both rides were brief with a lot of layers on. As I write this on the 28th of April, it is 36 degrees with a 15 mile an hour wind with snow and or rain on the way again. Hopefully the dates set on the calendar will hold and some fun rides will be added. As members can, they could keep a way to let others know if they are going on a spur of the moment ride and perhaps get together with other member for the day.

The tune up clinic went well and thank you to McKinley and Peters, those that brought their horses are ready to go when Mother Nature allows. There were 26 horses in all.

Please read the newsletter to see what went on at the meetings or better yet, come to the meetings for fellowship and a chance to win the monthly draw for 1/2 of the pot.

Fuel is going to be an issue for long trips this year, so it's Canfield, Marie Creek and Farragut for the members in the Coeur d'Alene area.

I have hat to unload, so see you on the trail, or shoveling snow or at the May meeting.

TUNE-UP CLINIC Photos

PANHANDLE BACK COUNTRY HORSEMEN APRIL 16, 2011 MINUTES

President Bob Williams called the meeting to order at 7.14PM
March minutes were read and correct and are now part of the record.

TUNE-UP CLINIC - Bob Williams reported that we had RSVP's for 49 horses. Due to various factors only 26 from the Chapter and 12 from the stables had services. But the vets were happy, it was a good day and the burritos that Bob & Lea made were GREAT.

EVENTS - Dates and Trail Bosses have been set for the following:

TBD - Hog Canyon at Fish Trap - Bob Williams, still under water and very muddy

TBD - Marie Creek Trail Clearing - Les Erickson, still impassable

May 7 - Remount Ride - Jerry & Diane Shriner, don't forget your permits

June 4th - Nat Trail Day work party - 2 Hitching rails @ English Pt, Karen Kimball and Bob Funke, we have the metal, Bob will do the welding, due to limited parking space this will be a work only project. We'll put in for a Lite House grant, need photos and write up. Also need a tractor and auger - call if you can help.

June 25 - 4th of July Pass Fun Ride - Joni Lueck and Bea Christopherson. Terry & Dee Sverdsten will be doing the food, lunch is $4, no dogs, no stallions, MEMBERS ONLY, can join at ride. The ski club will be doing a trail cleaning and will give us the date.

July 16 - Red Ives Work Project - Jim & Karen Kimball

July 23 - Bike Race at 4th of July Pass

Aug TBD - Hay hauling into Mallard-Larkins for Tracy Gravelle /FS

Oct 5th -Lutheran Haven Packing Demo - Bob Williams, needs helpers

2011 CALENDARS - We still have about 14 calendars left. Karen Kimball made a motion to sale them at $15 until June 1st, then we'll send the cards in under PBCH, Bill Clarke 2nd, motion passed.

NEW MEMBER PACKETS - Karen Kimball said that we can get bumper stickers from BCHA for $2 that we can give to NEW members and sell to current members. Debbie Samovar said that in the secretarial stuff she got that there was a sample new member packet full of brochures from the FS, weed control, horse care, etc. Karen Kimball will check with the Weed Control office as they have lots of free literature. Debbie Samovar will check her contacts for pricing on our own bumper sticker.

E-MAILS RECEIVED - The FS's budget is down 33%. The April newsletter of the Northeast BCHW had an article that keeping trails open also included getting out of the saddle, in addition to work parties. It will be printed in the newsletter

FUNDRAISE - Karen Kimball asked Terry Steiner to put on the LNT class. Lea Williams asked that you call her with the names of the businesses you contact and bring your items to the meetings ASAP. Debbie Samovar said that the riding therapy group she belongs to did a Horse Pucky Bingo where they gridded off a corral into 100 squares and sold the squares for $5 each and the square that the horse pooped in won $100. There was little work involved and a great return. So this event will be included.

BCHA listed us a Donor in their newsletter.

Karen Kimball will be meeting with Andy Boggs (FS) and Val Goodnow (Weed Control) about work on Marie Creek. Trying to see what we can do the switch back and boggy crossing - may do some puncheon work. We also need to remove the metal spike that's sticking up if it has not been done.

Bob Williams reported that horses are susceptible to colic due to weather changes. You can get shots to help reduce chances and make sure that salt is available.

VOLUNTEER HOURS - Karen Kimball passed out some a form and an information sheet on how to report Volunteer hours, samples will be printed in the newsletter. If you Trail Boss a work project, nip branches as you ride or speak about BCH to a group of people, please fill out these forms and pass them along to Karen. You can also call Karen if you have questions.

Kay Bradley won the drawing for the Progressive Pot.

There were 16 members present.

Meeting adorned at 8:42

Respectfully Submitted,
Debbie Samovar

The more we plan the more we make!

Get out of the Saddle

When it comes to keeping trails open, the words "traditional" and "historical" are usually found or read somewhere in the presentation or written material. But in addition to "traditional" and "historical", the word "responsibility" should be added to those adjectives!!

There are a lot of us trail riders and horse campers who "THEY" will keep open. "THEY" will make sure our horses have a hoof hold. "THEY" will keep the camps available to our uses. The problem with that logic is that "THEY" includes everyone—me, you, us.

Each year there is more and more demand for uses on public trails. There used to be a time that the "traditional" and "historical" users of trails were hikers and equestrians. Then came the bikers. Backpack-ers. And now it's roller boards (with huge wheels for going over rocks) and other users. Plus new ruling is requiring the opening public trails to "motorized wheeled uses that meet ADA uses". The words of "historical" and "traditional" will someday in the future include just about anything one can think of on trails!

"Responsibility" for keeping trails and camps open falls to equestrian trail users. Like every aspect of the equine industry, certain folks enjoy certain type of activities on the backs of their horses. Roping. Rodeo. Jumping. Dressage. Gymkhana. Shooting with the largest percentage of horses used for recreational trail riding. Which brings into play "they" heard around and-in meetings is in reality "us" — the recreational trail riders.

Spring is here and trails are soon going to be reopened. Winter always has a toll on trail conditions and after winter, some trails are closed because of "budget shortages" which is where a local group of "us" should step up and say "We'll work on that section of trail" or "You provide the material, we'll provide the muscle to drive nails and replace that bridge". In other words, get out of saddle for just one or two days to help clear, clean, repair a section of trail or a structure in a horse camp.

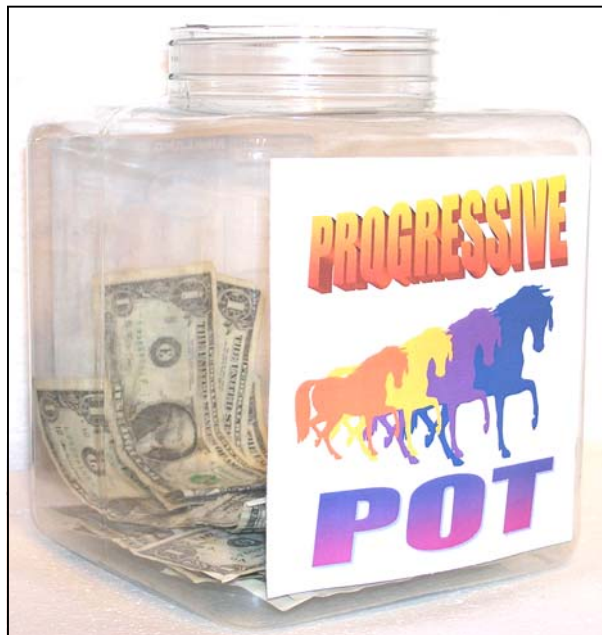

If one can't couple days or even one day or few hours a month the entire spring, two hours at a trail head to repair a fence, fix a gate, drive some nails in where some fell out— anything will help keep that area open.

I've seen trail heads closed off complete on the part of the equine trail users. In one case, a gate had fallen off a broken hinge. Gate wouldn't open "from the saddle". Some trail riders complained about it to the ranger. The ranger had no time because of "budget cuts". And to keep the "public safe" the trail head was closed to equestrian users for 4 years!! In reality, if the trail users had taken a couple hours out of one day's riding and FIXED the gate themselves, the trail head would have been open for those 4 years.

Keeping trails and camps open does have a "tradition" and a "historic" value, but "responsibility" is just as important in these days of budget cuts and more demands from more people to use trails. So to help keep our trails open, we've all got to get out of the saddle and grab a little "responsibility" by working on a trail, in a camp even if it means 3 hours of lost riding time. Riding through a gate that's still open because YOU fixed a hinge or kept the water flowing at a horse camp because YOU retighten a valve or YOU repaired a section of corral fence in a horse camp sure gives YOU a warm and fuzzy feeling just knowing YOU did it!!

Stay safe, Bonnie Davis, NEBCHW

The Remount Ride May 7-8, 2011

The remount ride is a ride we have done for the past several years. It is a fairly early ride and the weather is usually good; but I don't make guarantees. We ride on Kootenai-Salish Tribal land from an old remount station. It's mostly open grass/sagebrush land. There is good parking for rigs, water for horses and several corrals. Also some good areas to put up an electric fence or hi-line. Bring stock feed. We ride Sat and Sun and there are many places to ride on a variety of terrain.

Diane & I will be there Fri before noon. People are welcome to come whenever. We will fix breakfast for everyone Sat and Sun mornings and just charge for the actual cost which has been about $5 per breakfast in the past. Lunch is on your own and supper is the usual potluck and bring your own entree. Kids are encouraged and dogs allowed except in the kitchen and dining room.

Directions: Take I-90 to the St Regis exit. You will be on Hwy 135 headed down the Clark-Fork River toward Hwy 200. Continue about 22 miles to the junction of 135 and 200. Turn right/east and go about 10 miles to Perma. Don't blink. It is only about two buildings. Turn North on Hwy 382 across the bridge over the Flathead River and immediately turn east onto the gravel road headed up river. Go about two miles to the remount station-a bunch of old buildings and corrals. You can't miss it. These directions work best for most Idaho residents.

You must have a tribal conservation permit and camping stamp for each person 18 yrs and older. You can buy them at Plains, but it is easy to get them on line and you have plenty of time if you start now. Tribal officials will be checking so don't think you can slip through. Plains is a few miles west on Hwy 200 so if you want to buy that way turn west at the 135/200 junction to Plains and stop at the first place you come to. To get the permit on line go to <https://app.mt.gov/Als/Index> click the item that pertains to you. This will take you to the ALS number page. If you have had any kind of license or permit from the Mt F & G you will have an ALS number and you can search for it from this page. If not, just follow the directions and get one. Click submit and you should be at <https://app.mt.gov/Als/>. Scroll down to the CSKT Tribal license section and choose either the 1 year for $15.00 or the out of state 3 day for $8.00. The camping stamp can be purchased at the same time as the conservation permit. It is the first item in the CSKT section of the online licensing page. Proceed to the check out and you will get your permit in the mail. Print your receipt in case there is a problem.

Note: If you have already bought your conservation permit you only need to go back and buy the camping stamp in the same manner. MT F&G will send you a new form showing you have both the permit and the stamp. It really isn't a stamp, it's just another text line that says Flathead camping stamp.

Please RSVP to Jerry Shriner jerryshriner@gmail.com no later than 4/26/2011 to give us time to plan and buy the breakfast groceries.

FOR SALE!

The Ranch at Mica Meadows

Just listed, a turn-key horse boarding facility called the Ranch at Mica Meadows and I'm trying to get the word out to the local horse world! I'd love to see this sold to someone locally that would keep it open to the public and market local clinics. It's bank owned and priced very aggressively for immediate sale! Please pass this on to anyone you know that has horse contacts. It's a great opportunity for a turn-key facility at rock bottom pricing! All the information and tons of photos are available at

Give me a call if you have any questions.
