The President's Saddlebag

Karen Kimball, president PBCH

Hope the fall has given you a chance to ride away from the hunters. There are plenty of places to go such as the Idaho state parks of Heyburn and Farragut and in Washington Riverside State Park and Mt. Spokane. Good time to enjoy the fall colors.

Thirteen of us went down to Zillah for the BCH of WA Wine Ride. There were around 550 people registered people. The field of horse trailers and campers was amazing. We had a great time.

November 15 is election night. Don't all run from this as we need some folks willing to replace officers. The President can only do two years in a row so my position is up for someone else. I hope some of you will consider the officers' positions if asked. The same people can't do it all.

At the last meeting it was brought up that we should have all our meetings on Wednesday night year around. Some people liked that idea. We would like to know what you think of this. It will probably be voted on at the next meeting.

Be thinking about the Christmas Party as it will be December 5th at Cricket's in downtown Coeur d'Alene with Sandy Beamer as the trail boss. See attached flyer to sign up by Dec. 1 deadline.

See you in November.

Karen

Hitching Rail - Bob Funke and Bill Clarke put it up at Farragut State Park right by the outhouse.

The 2014 Calendars – what to do with leftover ones? Ideas considered: give a few away at the Christmas party or sell for $10 each. The raffle is conducted just before Christmas.

NEW BUSINESS

4th of July Pass Trail – Jim and Karen cleared a few downed trees on Jenny's Jaunt.

Christmas Party – Sandy was not present to report update on party.

Nominating Committee – need volunteers. Elections will be next month (November, 2014). Karen cannot run again as she has served for two years.

Allison Dunn – was not present to speak about her experience on animal rescues during the wildfires this summer.

Debbie suggested that meetings be held on Wednesday nights year round. Al agreed. Members are asked to weigh in regarding which night of the week they prefer.

Al brought up a concern about trail conditions at Fourth of July due to how small trees were cleared, leaving four to six inch stubs that could injure hooves. Karen shared that there were paths where the stubs were mostly cleared. Ray says that using a chainsaw that close to the dirt will dull the blades.

Next meeting Sat. November 15th- ELECTION NIGHT

Progressive Pot- Joyce drew her own name! $43.75
