PBCH newsletter editor musings by Joni Lueck

Yes Fall is in the air. We've had a good rain this week and it has cooled off. The trees are still beautiful in their full fall colors. This is a good time to ride as the horses are in good shape from the summer riding season and the heat has passed. The ground has some moisture in it and is not too dusty.

Some fun places to ride and avoid the rifle hunting season are the state parks including Riverside State Park in Washington and Heyburn State Park south of Coeur d'Alene. Other conservation areas offer a "no hunting" riding experience.

The Inland Empire Back Country Horsemen's web site www.iebch.org in Spokane lists some of their favorite riding places if you are looking for those conservation areas. Our web site www.pbch.org is a great resource. It has links to many Idaho back country horsemen web sites. In addition, the bylaws, membership form, trail boss checklist and past projects are there to view and download.

Speaking of riding, next spring I hope to get over to my home town Missoula and try some horse trails there. The local back country horsemen chapter holds an annual steak ride northeast of Missoula up the Blackfoot River. Years ago when I was a member in Missoula I went to that steak ride many times. Smoke and Thelma Elser would truck in their stoves and equipment and put on the steaks and all the fixings.

There are other established trails near the Rattlesnake Wilderness area north and the Blue Mountain area south of the city. Google horse trails around Missoula for more information.

Another dream ride for me is over near Deer Lodge, Montana, at the historic Grant Kohrs Ranch. It is a working cattle ranch and is now run by the National Park Service. You can haul your horse over and ride in designated areas on the ranch. They have a calendar of events held at the ranch during the different seasons including haying and branding events. Google Grant-Kohrs Ranch.

Remember you can ride west of Spokane or down to Lewiston during the winter months as these areas may not get as much snow as around Coeur d'Alene. Happy trails! Joni

-----Notes from Karen Kimball-----

 Three members including Jerry Shriner, Bill Clarke and myself attended the State Board of Directors meeting IBCH last month in Pocatello. The notes from that SBD meeting will be discussed at the November PBCH meeting.-----

I have some people that want to order our red T-shirts so I am still taking orders for shirts or sweatshirts. Sweatshirts come in gray or burgandy, zip-up or pull-over, with hoods. I need around 12 on an order to make them reasonable in cost. Karen 772-2434.

If you have any photos you would like to share please forward to Karen as she will put together a slide show at the Christmas Party. Her email is jkkimball01@gmail.com -----

 A big thank you to all the members who helped out at the Dalton Gardens annual citywide picnic. You know who you are. It is a way for the chapter to give back for the use of the city hall building for the monthly meetings.
