President's Letter

Don't forget about our meeting on September 15. Hoping for a better turnout. It will be outside in the park. Also we have a ride on the 19th which should be a fun one. I will be traveling to New Meadows on September 24 for the State Board of Directors meeting. Please let me know if you want a hard copy or email copy of the state and national newsletters. Enjoy the good weather while it lasts.

August, 2021 Meeting Minutes

This was an unofficial meeting due to the lack of attendance. It was called to order at 7:10 p.m.

*No new members and no guests in attendance.

*Treasurer's report was provided for July/August.

Income combined: Membership $160, calendars $200, Obstacle Course entries $285, Silent Auction $163, Lunch (concession) $139, donation and water $15, and interest $.012 cents.

Expenses: Bank statement $2, obstacle course expenses to Julie Volpi, and chainsaw misc. supplies to Karen Kimball $14.82.

Old Business

The bench at Dalton City Hall has been painted and the fence posts have been sealed/waterproofed.

We have about 45 2021 calendars left. Karen will enter the Panhandle BCH in the annual drawing in September with the remaining entry forms in the remaining calendars. (Audra made motion and Betsy seconded it.)

The 2022 calendars are in. If you would like to purchase one for yourself or know of anyone that would like to purchase one please reach out to Karen Kimball.

Karen would like the group to consider purchasing an electric chainsaw. She will look into a few different brands and the costs of each and get back to the group.

Dalton Gardens picnic is canceled.

New Business

Antoine Peak Fun Ride and lunch is scheduled for Sept. 19. Jamie Smith and Joni Lueck will trail boss.

The city of Dalton Gardens is going to charge us $25 for the use of the basement and outside area for the monthly meetings if reserved. We can use the outside park area without reservations for free. If anyone has a suggestion for an alternative meeting space please advise.

Karen would like some suggestions for topics to invite speakers at the monthly meetings. Arnie Wilkens, vice-president, will speak at the October 16 meeting about map reading.

Meeting adjourned 7:40 p.m.

Meeting minutes submitted by Audra LaBelle, secretary

Farragut Fun Ride and Hot Dog Lunch

Eight people showed for the fun ride and hot dog lunch at Farragut State Park August 14. It was a hot and smoky day. Trail boss Julie Volpi.
